	companies, of which only two are at present State-owned (the Sofia-Samokov and Sofia-Tran-Klisura routes). Passenger vehicles total 250, of which forty per cent are modern and in first class running order. Trucks total 3,500. There are approximately 5,000 privately owned cars. Passenger transport on the Danube is carried out by four vessels operating between Ruse and Vidin and by two between Ruse and Silistra. Ten tugs and thirty barges, of which five are designed for transporting petroleum products, make up the remainder of the Danube fleet. The total tempage of the Bulgarian Black Sea merchant fleet is 15,000 tons of steam vessels and 30,000 tons of dissel and gasoline driven ships.
